

DRESSING FOR INTERVIEWS

A series of TV ads uses the slogan "Image is everything." In job interviews, image is not "everything" but it is important and the way that you dress contributes to that image.

Little has been written about dressing for interviews and that is what makes this minichart, adapted from Campus to Career in 48 Hours important. Creating the right appearance is but one of many ways you prepare for the interview—and everything you can do makes a job offer more likely.

Conservative hosiery without runs

Polished pumps in good repair

Minichart prepared and distributed by the Career Opportunities News, PO Box 190, Garrett Park, MD 20896, 301/946-2553.

Material for this chart used, with permission, from Campus to Career in 48 Hours available from Profile Systems, 750 Hammond Drive, Building 9, Suite 308, Atlanta, GA 30328.